Richmond Attracts In Portola Parade

Decorations Cause Favorable Comment by Thousands of Sight-Seeing Visitors.

Special to The Richmond Terminal.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 24.—Richmond made the big hit today as her long line of automobiles, artistically decorated, passed down Market street, containing the Portola girls, city council and officers and prominent citizens.

The Eagle Drum corps' big truck, the cars of Messrs Ludwig, MacQuiddy, Bates, Turley, W. A. Lucas, Owens and others attracted favorable comment.

The high school boys made the crowds roar with laughter. The freak walking horse caused it.

D. A. Knowles "is to blame" for the successful showing Richmond made today. He deserves the "bouquet."

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Polytechnic Business College ball November 13.

Today is "Serra Day," also legal holiday, so declared by Governor Johnson.

J. H. Mueller of Sacramento, a clerk of the Southern Pacific Co., visited Rufus Smith this week.

Richmond is to have a public bath house on East Macdonald. The movement is a determined one on the part of the east side promoters.

The fire hall building to be erected for Company No. 2 will be designed by Architect James T. Nabett whose plans were accepted by the council.

Silveria Bros., who recently purchased the Golden Gate Creamery at Point Richmond, have taken over the business of the Harbor Creamery between 5th and 6th streets on Macdonald avenue, and both plants will be known as the Golden Gate Creamery.

James Fox, a pioneer, whose home has been at San Pablo for a half century, died Wednesday, his death being due to advanced age. He was a native of Ireland and came to this country when a mere boy. He was one of the best known ranchers in the San Pablo section. The funeral will be held tomorrow from St. Paul's Catholic church.

Fred M. Neville and Mrs. Neville of this city have returned from Los Angeles where Mr. Neville who is a master car builder of the Standard and Union Oil Co.'s tank lines, was called on business. Mr. Neville will soon go to Portland on business for these oil concerns. He reports business of great activity for these big oil industries.

Said Ali Held For Trial.

Said Ali, the Punjabi, accused of the murder of Rosa Domingo, was held for trial in the Superior court without bonds, yesterday, by Police Judge William Lindsey.

Bill Boards Not To Be Tolerated

Erection of Unsightly Dead Walls Again Held Up at Sixth and Macdonald.

The single tax movement which is attracting attention of property owners would no doubt act as a check in the abuse of vacant lots that are used for unsightly bill boards by speculative land owners at the present time.

By transferring taxes to vacant property and taking it off of improvements, there would not be many vacant corners in the central portions of our cities that are now decorated with dead walls proclaiming the merits of potams and tobaccos.

However, City Attorney Hall is drafting an ordinance that will regulate this nuisance, and the central portion of Richmond may soon be free from glaring signs that obstruct the view and afford hiding places for night prowlers.

Cigar Store Sold.

W. Bercovich, who owns a long chain of cigar stores, has purchased the Smokerie cigar store on Macdonald avenue from Cleek Bros. The new owner of the place intends to remodel the store and make it up to date.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

No school today.

Hart A. Downer, with the George Friend real estate company, was in Richmond on business Tuesday.

J. W. Mc Elvaine of the "Coast Banker," published in San Francisco was a visitor at the Terminal office Wednesday.

Fred Schram and family returned from Los Angeles Sunday via auto conveyance and report an enjoyable outing.

Johnstone & Braine are moving to the corner of Fourth and Macdonald, the tailors having "flew the coop."

A number of delegates who attended the Eastern Star Grand Lodge meeting at Santa Cruz this week returned today.

Attorney Clare D. Horner has returned from a six week's visit with relatives in Ohio and Iowa, and many other places of interest in the east.

H. L. Penry, the councilman and contractor, returned from Los Angeles Sunday. After attending the convention at Venice Mr. Penry spent another week sight-seeing in the Southland.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbst and F. Strain autoed from Fresno last week and are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Sroufe and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Frost.

The baseball games to be played by the midwinter league promise to be interesting. The park at First street is being improved, and the players are accumulating lots of "pep."

Travel Overland to San Joaquin Valley

Jolly Party Go by Easy Stages to State Federation Meeting at Fresno.

Richmond was well represented last week at the State Federation of Labor convention at Fresno, four representatives from this city adopting the easy stage method of wagon and team, requiring four days to reach the valley city and four to return, making an ideal outing for the party, the session at Fresno lasting the entire week. The party was composed of N. M. Blankenship, delegate from the central labor council, J. D. Baldwin, delegate from the teamsters, Pete Pedrazzini and Sam Rodgers the latter going along as visitors.

The boys tell some funny experiences that would make some moving pictures worth while if they could be reproduced. Pete Pedrazzini, the teamster, relates what he did in a pugilistic encounter in Livermore. The victim, Pete says, has not yet "come to."

Delegate Baldwin made a fine report, in brief, of the proceedings of the convention Monday night at the Central Labor Council's regular meeting.

It appears that Fresno is not organized along all lines like the bay cities. The Richmond delegation entered a restaurant where attractive white girls were employed as waitresses. On being seated, they discovered that a Jap woman was presiding at the cashier's desk, which caused a sudden stampede of the delegates whose gay badges suddenly suggested that the bunch were in the wrong pew.

Delegates were constantly on the lookout, as Fresno is by no means a "button" town. Bartenders and barbers alike are not well organized, there being about 50 barbershops, one-half being fair and the other half unfair ice shops.

A Los Angeles lady delegate to the convention caused quite a stir in the big meeting when she proposed that a resolution be adopted that every delegate be subjected to a "private search" to ascertain whether all articles of wearing apparel worn by the delegates bore the union label.

The Sunday closing proposition occupied the attention of the convention two days, and the delegates could not see their way clear to pass a Sunday closing measure. The bartenders strenuously opposed the proposition of Sunday closing, and the convention finally decided that application of a closing law could not consistently be applied under present conditions in California.

Stockton won the next convention, nosing out Sacramento who put up a good fight.

Successful Law Firm.

The law firm of Wildgrube & Murphy, whose offices are in the Pillow block, is a strong combination of attorneys, as their fast increasing business proves. Mr. Wildgrube, a man of sterling quality, and who has made a host of friends in Richmond, was fortunate in securing Frank E. Murphy as an associate, a man who brings with him high class credentials. Mr. Murphy was counsel for the Title Insurance and Trust Co. of Los Angeles at 5th and Spring streets, previous to coming here. He was at one time associated with Judge S. L. Nichols, judge of the 12th Judicial District of Mandam, N. D., from whom he has some excellent letters of recommendation. Judge Nichols and Mr. Murphy were classmates together in the University of Tennessee. Mr. Murphy has a letter of recommendation from Nathan W. Hale, ex-congressman of Tennessee, their native state, which is proof sufficient that Mr. Murphy stands high as a man of character and ability in his chosen profession, to say nothing of his fine military record. The firm of Wildgrube & Murphy will no doubt continue to receive their share of the legal business of Richmond.

Rumor is afloat that the banks are "loosening up."

Venice the Beautiful, Pacific Coast's Pride

Members of City Administration Greatly Benefited—Tourist Crop Arriving.

The delegation from Richmond to the league of municipalities convention at Venice was a representative crowd, composed principally of city officials in the employ of Richmond—some on salary and some without, the latter the councilmen. The benefit derived from this trip is worth the price to the city, a good investment.

Good Streets.

They heard some excellent papers on subjects of vital interest to those who administer the affairs of city governments. The valuable information received in regard to single tax and its practical application was worth the price.

One member of the council said: "I have learned more about good road building and their maintenance in the week spent around Los Angeles than I would have learned in twenty years in the bay cities. They build good streets in the Southland for the simple reason that the requirement is quality, and nothing is accepted but the very best. The boulevards from Los Angeles to Santa Monica, Venice, Redonda, etc., are near perfection."

"Bucking" Rollers.

A number of the Richmond delegation indulged in surf bathing daily, Councilman Picton declaring he could not resist the temptation to tackle the rollers twice each day, morning and evening.

Richmond's city administration was represented at the Venice convention by the following: City Clerk A. C. Farris, Auditor J. A. McVittie, Engineer E. D. Chapman, Treasurer I. R. Vaughn, Attorney D. J. Hall, Architect J. B. Ogborn, Health Com. C. R. Blake, Chief of Police, J. P. Arnold; Councilmen Picton, Penry, Garrard, Follett, Willis and Fernald.

Los Angeles caters almost exclusively to the tourist, and plucks him "going and coming." It is an endless supply of crisp new greenbacks arriving daily.

It is said the majority of newcomers are from "Ioway." Los Angeles has a death grip on the Hawkeye state and is determined to depopulate it.

Everybody From Iowa.

Even Pasadena with a population of 35,000, claims that 34,999 are from Iowa. It is said the Los Angeles real estate men are seriously considering removing Iowa to Los Angeles and utilizing it in filling the vacant space between San Pedro harbor and the city proper. There is nothing impossible in Los Angeles, nothing they will not tackle.

A Convention Town.

Venice is the most attractive beach resort, and it is said to be far superior to the Atlantic coast's big watering places. It is the ideal place for holding conventions. The amusement features of Venice are of a substantial, permanent kind. The beach is perfect and the surf is grand. The epidemics of a newspaper man, however tough, will peel off if he lolls around on the sand long without a robe, duster or blanket. The Terminal man and Councilman Picton can verify this statement.

Beautiful Redonda.

Redonda is a beautiful place six miles south of Venice. Redonda held an election on the 17th to decide the "wet and dry" question. It was claimed if Redonda should go dry, the other resorts would get the patronage.

"Villa Charles Sumner."

The beautiful home of Chas. Sumner Young is near Redonda, situated on a hill overlooking an area of land and water comprising 60 square miles. "Villa Chas. Sumner" is an attractive home place with acres of gardens. It is here on this fertile garden spot elevated above the surrounding country that Mr. Young spends much of his time, a man of national fame and an entertainer of no mean ability.

Typhoid Fever to Be Fought by University

U. C. Professor of Pathology Finds Quick Remedy For Dread Disease.

Hereafter, any Californian who has typhoid fever has himself to blame for his wholly unnecessary affliction. It has just been announced that typhoid vaccine and directions for its use will be sent free to any physician in the state who will make application for it to the Department of Pathology of the University of California.

A new method of typhoid vaccination has now been worked out by Dr. Frederick Parker Gay, Professor of Pathology in the University of California. Vaccination against this dread disease has already been proven a success by worldwide experiments and use. Heretofore the use of typhoid vaccine has caused, in many persons, considerable fever or nausea. Dr. Gay's new method, is not only of increased efficiency but does away with, or greatly reduces, any disagreeable symptoms in connection with such vaccination.

More than three hundred students have been vaccinated against typhoid with Professor Gay's new method since the University reopened in August. The University Infirmary is now giving the vaccine to more than 150 students every week. All students who ask for it are to be given such protection against this dangerous disease.

It is particularly in small towns and in the country that danger from typhoid is great, for the large city is apt to have better water supply, protected against sewage pollution. It is contaminated water, contaminated milk, and flies which are the cause of most cases of typhoid. Even a city dweller who is protected against these three sources of infection is still in danger of contracting the disease, since "typhoid carriers" are numerous and contaminate food or drink.

Friday as Adv. Day.

Friday is the day that the merchant does his heavy advertising. Why? Because his adv. will reach the Saturday and Monday shopper in due time. The Saturday and Monday specials receive publicity in Friday morning's Terminal, the paper that reaches its readers in time to read the bargains.

The Terminal is the newspaper that put the "boost" in Richmond ten years ago when Sixth and Macdonald avenue was a grain field.

Mr. Young entertains on a large scale, and connoisseurs in art and literature, men of national fame in politics, come to the villa as the guests of this philanthropist, author (and poet, too) who resembles the immortal Abe Lincoln so much in appearance and character.

Mr. Young has a mansion filled with valuable antiques, pictures, memoirs and personal letters, one of the most valuable in the country. From every state in the union Mr. Young's friends are urging him to get into the U. S. senatorial race. He has the endorsement and scores of personal letters from the most eminent men of the nation urging him to shy his castor in the ring, and he may consent.

When it is remembered that Mr. Young went on the bond of Clarence Darrow at a time when Big Business, and many of Mr. Young's most intimate friends, were astonished at his action, Young never weakened. He believed that Darrow was the victim of a frame-up; that he was innocent of the charges, and he decided to do his utmost to prevent Darrow from being railroaded to prison.

It has subsequently developed that Chas. Sumner Young made a good guess relative to the sterling character of Clarence Darrow.

Those who criticized Young at that time, now laud him. It was nothing more than a spirit of fairness that prompted Young to help Darrow in a one-sided fight.

It is this class of men that the world reveres, and they are few and far between.

MOVE TO CLOSE UP CAMPAIGN SACKS

Senate Passes Measure to Prevent Influencing of Elections in the States

Act Most Drastic—If it Becomes Law Will Check Activities of Many Big Organizations

Washington—The first direct result of the congressional investigation of campaign expenditures came when the senate passed Senator Clapp's bill prohibiting the sending of campaign funds from one state to another.

If the house approves the measure it will put a rigid limitation, not only upon the activities of general political interests, but also upon the work of such organizations as the National Manufacturers' Association, the American Federation of Labor and the National Association for Woman Suffrage.

The bill prohibits the carrying or sending of funds from one state to another, to be used in the election of president, vice-president, presidential electors or congressmen. The senate passed the bill without debate. In previous discussions it was made clear that its purpose was to prevent the financing of campaigns in a secret manner by organizations or individuals who did not come directly under the campaign publicity laws.

The proposed new law would not prohibit the present work of national political committees, so long as they make public reports of all contributions received and expended. Practically all the national committees send contributions to the state committees of their parties during a national election.

It is believed the measure would curtail the soliciting of campaign funds in money centers, and generally curb campaign activities on the part of persons or organizations that might be directly interested in the outcome of elections.

A further amendment of campaign contribution laws was proposed by Senator Sterling in a bill to prevent all corporations from contributing to campaigns for nominations, as they are now prohibited from contributing to election campaigns.

Former Chinese Liberator, Now Rebel, Caught in Japan

Victoria, B. C.—That Dr. Sun Yat Sen has been arrested near Kobe, Japan, charged with the theft of approximately 2,000,000 taels, is the word brought to this port by the Canadian Pacific liner Empress of India from the Orient. China has an extradition treaty with Japan, and it is stated, that proceedings are under way for the return of Sun Yat Sen to China for trial.

The 2,000,000 taels are stated to be part of the large sum that Dr. Sun collected for the revolution and failed to turn in.

The message confirmed the dispatch appearing a short time ago that Sun Yat Sen had arrived in Kobe.

Governor of Florida May Urge an Alien Land Law

Sacramento—Governor Park Trammell of Florida has requested Governor Johnson to send him copies of the alien land law passed by the California legislature, the governor's message on the bill, and any other information connected with the subject. The request follows closely upon the published stories that large colonies of Japanese would be made in Florida by corporations of Japanese and some of Americans.

Daring French Aviator Coming

San Francisco—Julius Pegoud, the French aviator who has thrilled Paris by flying head down and by dropping in that position, will be seen in San Francisco in the early part of December if present plans are carried through. A moving picture magnate has signed Pegoud to make a tour of the United States, with his "premiere" in San Francisco.

Need Not Take Medicine

Portland, Or.—City Health Officer Marcellus has announced that his department will not force any patients to take any medicine, who, from principle, are opposed to the drugs. This is in answer to many protests that have reached the city commission from Christian Scientists and others who are opposed to taking drugs.

Aviator Given up as Lost

New York—Seekers by land and sea for Albert J. Jewell, the aviator who vanished in the sky last week, abandoned hope of finding his body or his aeroplane. They were convinced that he had been carried out to sea by the wind, had fallen into the water and drowned.

Divorced at 82

Marion, O.—Mary Ann Tracy, 82 years old, Marion county's oldest divorce applicant, was granted a divorce by Judge Scofield, who had known her since boyhood. Eugene Tracy, her husband, disappeared a number of years ago.

BASEBALL

Bob Groom has struck his stride again.

Baseball Players' fraternity has nearly 450 members.

Nap Rucker, too, is planning a pilgrimage to Bonasetter Reese.

Eddie Foster is playing as good ball for the Senators as he ever did in his life.

Hank O'Day says a ball player is at his best when he is about thirty years old.

Griffith has shipped one of his Cubans, Calvo, to Atlanta of the Southern league.

Dent, a pitcher sent to Atlanta by Griffith early in the season, has shown excellent control.

President Navin of Detroit has warned Ty Cobb not to play winter ball in California.

Walter Traverser, a newcomer in the major leagues, has signed with the Boston Nationals.

A Detroit paper says: "Consider the lily and Roger Bresnahan; they toll not, neither do they spin."

Connie Mack comes out with the statement that he will have a better team next season. What for?

Lefty Leifeld, who was sent to the coast by the Cubs, won the first two games he pitched for the Seals.

Comiskey well can afford to be happy if he knows that both Walsh and Russell will be in tiptop shape next year.

Jack Fournier, the big Frenchman of the White Sox, is a wrestling enthusiast and great admirer of Frank Gotch.

We can imagine of nothing of less consequence than being afraid of losing a job as manager of the Cincinnati Reds.

Manager Mack is beginning to realize that Eddie Plank is getting old—a fact of which most fans were not cognizant.

Hughie Jennings remarks that Ralph Comstock, his recruit hurler, has more nerve than any youngster he ever saw.

Joe Berger, who has supplanted Maurice Rath at second base for the White Sox, is making a big hit with Chicago fans.

Johnny Beall, the youngster who went to Milwaukee in part payment for Chappell, is battling in the cleanup position for the Brewers.

The leading White Sox "slugger" is batting .274. Standing answer to inquiry, "What's the matter with the Chicago American league club?"

Irving Porter, a young outfielder secured by the Reds, has a batting average of over .400 in the New England league and is faster than Jim Thorpe.

Ben Tincup, a pitcher, has been bought by the Phillies. If he can overcome the handicap his name gives him, he may make good in the majors.

The Yanks are beginning to behave like regular ball players, and cartoonists and paragraphers will soon have to look for some one else to poke fun at.

Artie Hofman is playing a come-back role with the Nashville Southern League club and it is probable that he will be with the New York Yankees in 1914.

Tommy Leach to succeed Evers as manager is the latest program mapped out by Cub rumor mongers. If Leach falls then Bresnahan will be tried, they proclaim.

Miller Huggins is an ingenious chap. He has offered Konetchy for about half of McGraw's ball club. The Giants' leader might accept the generous offer at that.

Caldwell is one of the best hitting pitchers in the big leagues. He is good enough to hold down a regular berth in the outfield if he were not needed on the slab.

Heinie Zimmerman has another incentive for "being good." McGraw has promised him a trip around the world. Ping Bodie has been promised the same thing.

Pitcher Kirby, who belongs to Toronto, pitched a no-hit game for the Guelph against St. Thomas in the Canadian league on August 6. He struck out ten men.

Minor league magnates are hot after some of that major league ready money. Big league magnates have spent about $50,000 for five players recently. Some of these were cast-offs.

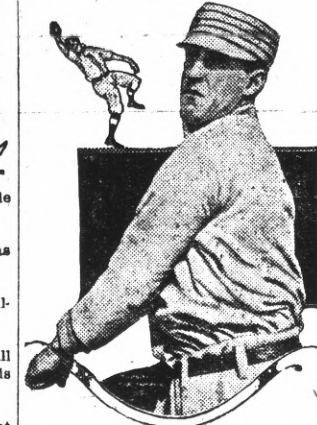

Stop Eating and Reduce Meat Prices

Kansas City, Mo.—Charles W. Armour, president of the Missouri corporation of Armour & Co., packers, says if consumers will discontinue eating meat for two years, until the supply of cattle is brought back to its normal condition, the bottom will drop out of prices.

President Wilson Honored

Worcester, Mass.—President Woodrow Wilson has been elected a member of the American Antiquarian Society in recognition of his historical writings.

PITCHER EDDIE PLANK

The recent defeats of Eddie Plank have convinced his most loyal backers that he is actually about done, in spite of his spurt at the beginning of the season. Eddie will have to pitch a couple of no-hit games to convince the doubters that he is not ready to quit just yet.

Zinn, a former Yankee, is playing field for the Braves.

Philadelphia writers think Reed, the recruit shortstop, looks like a comer.

Tim Murnane has denied the story that he intends resigning as head of the New England league.

Manager McGraw expects Rube Marquard, his star southpaw heaver, to be the star of the coming world's series.

Frank Farrell, owner of the New York Americans, does not intend to let money stand in the way of building up the Yankees.

Griffith believes Clyde Milan, his star outfielder, is as good as Tris Speaker or any of them as far as accurate throwing is concerned.

Connie Mack figures he will have seven pitchers in shape for the world's series. They are Plank, Bender, Coombs, Houck, Brown, Shawkey and Bush.

Pitcher Quaradars, whose every day stunt while twirling for the Oakland (Wis.) team was to strike out 10 or 20 men, has been signed by the Chicago White Sox.

George Whitted, the Cardinals' young shortstop, wastes a lot of time straightening up for each throw, according to Huggins, who is trying to eradicate the falling.

SPORTING WORLD

It is said that Jim Jeffries has offered to help Ad Wolgast get into condition to re-enter the fight game.

As a result of the death of "Bull" Young the boxing game is ended in Los Angeles for a while at least.

Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders association races at Lexington, from October 6 to 18, will be for purses aggregating $65,000.

Yost has decided he won't start the Michigan football candidates on their work so early as he had intended. He is afraid they will go stale.

An attractive offer has been made for Etawah, the greatest three-year-old of the year, with a record of 2:07 1/4. Etawah cost its present owner but $6,500.

The value of the Irish Derby of 1915, the big horse race of the Emerald Isle, will be increased to 2,500 sovereigns, and the Irish Oaks to 1,000 sovereigns.

Packey McFarland says that five pounds is all that keeps Charlie White from the lightweight championship. Charlie's fighting weight is 128 pounds.

The entire programme of sporting events on the German Olympics to be held in Berlin in 1916 will be run off in eight days, two less than at Stockholm last year.

Fred M. Thompson of Jackson, Mich., recently sold Farmer Spear for $10,000 to O. W. Parcell. Farmer Spear won many trotting stake events early this season.

Willie Ritchie, lightweight champion of the world, has said he wants to be champion but two years more, then he will turn the title over to some clean young fellow.

Notre Dame will not lose Eichenlaub and Dorias, conceded by western critics to be two of the best of the 1912 gridiron performers. Both have announced their intention of returning to school.

It may be a great deal of consolation to our English brethren to learn that San Francisco has produced another couple of tennis players who look the counterparts of Maurice McLaughlin.

"Hop-Heads" Pose for Movies

San Francisco—An enterprising moving picture company was photographing 20 drug fiends in the act of "taking a shot" at Pacific street and Grant avenue when the authorities from the State Board of Pharmacy arrested the 20. They were charged with vagrancy. The drug fiends were paid $1 each to pose.

In nearly 200 schools in Ireland instruction is carried on in both Irish and English, as part of the program to revive interest in Gaelic language and literature.

To Read Dates on Old Coins.
Not every possessor of old coins from which part of the inscriptions is obliterated knows how to make the inscriptions temporarily legible, so as to ascertain the date and value. You can do it by placing the coin on a red-hot iron—an ordinary fire shovel, for example. The parts where the letters of the inscription once existed oxidize at a different rate from the surrounding parts. The film of oxid that covers them has a different thickness, and therefore reflects a different color from that of the adjacent parts. In consequence, the obliterated letters take shape and become legible. The inscription, which is of a greenish hue when the coin is hot, disappears as it cools.—Youth's Companion.

WOMEN TRUST THEIR MEMORY
Minds Made Retentive by Carrying Purse and Wearing by Pockets.
Says a Shop Walker.
The shop walker held in his hand a woman's bag, which he was about to pass into safe keeping. It had just been picked up on the counter, and the question was whether its owner had proceeded to another department or whether she had left the shop.
"That matter was soon settled. In a moment she was back, had smilingly
identified her property and had gone,
with these words: 'I never really lose my bag, for if I leave it alone I always know where I put it.'"
"Do you think that the fact that women and their pockets have been divided for many a long year has strengthened the feminine memory?"
the shop manager was asked, and he replied in the affirmative.
"Of course, we jog their recollection
for them," he said. "In all those departments in which customers are likely to put their bags down, such as the costumes and millinery, and particularly the millinery, special attendants give them words of warning. Not that they are liable to forget them altogether, but because of the chance of light-fingered persons being about ready to pilfer when there is no one looking. But considering how women must rely upon their handbags for carrying everything portable, money, handkerchiefs, toilette adjuncts and the like, it is surprising how few defects we discover."
"The manufacturers help them to remember. There are bags that dangle
from the little finger and bags with hand straps, bags that hang round the neck, and here is a bag that is part of a shoe, a little pocket, in fact, that will hold a few sovereigns. But women, as a rule, prefer to trust their memories, and I am sure they are learning to do so, with perfect safety
to their possessions."

THE LOVE AFFAIR OF A DREAMER
By FRED JACKSON.
Billy's heart throbbed painfully as he raised his voice with hers. To be singing with her. To be singing with her. He bent low over his book in the corner lest the other boys see how his face flushed; he was sensitive about showing his emotions—Billy. His wonderfully sweet tenor, still unformed, of course, but so true,
rang out clearly with her trained soprano. She stood up at the choir loft to sing, but he sat always behind the curtain, he looked so very little beside her, you see, for he was only eleven.
When the duet was finished, a sigh passed from many lips. She never got applause, of course—she sang church music—but she saw the wrapt expression of the faces below her,
and heard the sighs that were enough
to tell her that she was very much loved. Billy saw not even this; he saw in her eyes, though, as she took her seat, and that was enough for him.
For Billy was in love.
"Thank you, dear," she whispered
softly across to him. "You make it so easy for me when you sing like that." A light flashed suddenly into the boy's eyes, his cheeks went very pink, and she wondered that so meager and thin a little face could become so beautiful at times. Billy bowed his head in his arms and uttered the words over and over to himself. They were a wondrous reward for his love, those words, for the first love of his pure little heart
—the unquestioning, confident, trusting love that asks no return, only to worship from afar.

AT LUNCH OR PICNIC
DELICATE SANDWICHES THAT ARE EASILY PREPARED.
Oldtime Favorites, With Some That May Be New—Cheese Capable of Many Variations; and All
Are Good.
Egg Sandwiches—Spread the bread slices with butter, then with good stiff mayonnaise or boiled dressing. Lay crisp, tender lettuce leaves on each slice and sliced hard-boiled egg, or egg scrambled with cheese between the lettuce, and press lightly together.
Boiled egg chopped fine with sweet green pepper and mixed with mayonnaise and spread between lettuce leaves or shredded lettuce, is another idea.
Cutting Favorite—To two tablespoons
of butter, add half a cup of cream,
one of grated or finely shaved American cheese, two or three boiled and mashed sardines, a tablespoonful of mushroom catsup, dash of mustard
and paprika, and half a small bottle
of stuffed or ripe olives chopped fine.
Season with salt to taste and spread between thinly buttered slices of bread.
Spanish Sandwich—Cut whole wheat bread in thin slices, butter lightly, spread with little made mustard, then a layer of cottage cheese, mixed with chopped ripe or green olives. Or mix the olive with mayonnaise and spread on one slice of the sandwich, and the cheese on the other.
Country Club Sandwich—Lay a crisp
lettuce leaf on a thin slice of tomato, cut in four sections, and spread with mayonnaise. Lay on upper buttered slice of bread.
Cottage Cheese, Olive, and Horseradish—Rub into the cottage cheese a little grated American cheese and a few chopped olives. Then add enough fresh grated horseradish to give the paste a "nippliness" that is agreeable.
Season with salt, and add enough
cream or mayonnaise to make a paste
to spread easily.
Ham Sandwich—A paste made of minced ham, little vinegar or sharp cider, in season, made mustard, mixed with grated horseradish and olive oil.
A few chopped nasturtiums may take the place of the horseradish at this season of the year.
Cheese Sandwiches—Of cheese sandwiches there is infinite variety. For plain picnic sandwich the most satisfying form is to slice good rich American cheese about an eighth of an inch thick or not quite as thick as bread slices; lay it on the buttered bread, sprinkle with salt and paprika, spread a little French mustard over it if for grown people, who would probably prefer Gruyere to American cheese.
Sliced baked apple and cheese make a sandwich that is good and wholesome for the children.
Grate any cheese and mix with butter, a little salt and paprika or mustard, and spread on the bread.
Fancy Towel.
An unusually handsome towel can be made of heavy linen huck and coronation crocheted insertion. Procure a huck towel of the size desired (the insertion is rather too heavy for the small guest towel, with its hemmatched ends. Cut one end off about an inch and a half above the hem. On the raw edge of the towel and on the raw edge of the piece cut off, make the narrowest possible hems by hand.
The coronation crocheted to be used around the towel, made by crocheting ing coronation braid into a design with heavy crochet cotton. It is quite as effective as cluny. Join the two pieces of the towel, after they are each hemmed, by whipping on to both small ends the strip of insertion.
Only one end of the towel should be ornamented in this fashion, the hemstitching being sufficient for the other end.
Cold Boiled Rice as Luncheon Dish.
Cold boiled rice can be used in a good luncheon or breakfast dish.
Butter a baking dish and put a layer of rice in it, then one of cheese, either grated or cut into little bits.
Sprinkle with salt and pepper, put in another layer of rice and cheese,
and cover the dish with bread crumbs.
Pour one-half cupful of rich milk or cream over the rice and bake for thirty minutes in a hot oven or until it is nicely browned.
Olives From Cherries.
Take the largest and firmest of Bing or Royal Anne cherries, and, after washing them, put them stems and all into a glass quart jar. Add two tablespoonfuls of salt, four tablespoonfuls of vinegar and fill the jar with cold water. Seal tight, shake well and set away six weeks, when they will be ready to use. The cherries will be nearly dissolved the salt in a little water before adding the vinegar.
Refinishing Easy.
A chest of drawers or an old cupboard that is in need of refinishing can be restored by the application of a coat or two of mahogany stain after the old paint or varnish has been removed. In place of the wood or brass handles to the drawers, substitute the little glass knobs that adorn real pieces of colonial furniture. The glass knobs cost merely a trifle and are easily screwed into place.
Bonnie Jean Cake.
Cream one-half cup of butter with one cup sugar, pour into this the yolks of three well-beaten eggs, one-half cup milk and add one and three-quarters cups of sifted flour, two teaspoons baking powder, one-half pound raisins, one-quarter pound citron. Beat the whites of the eggs stiff and stir gently through the mixture. Bake in, steady oven 45 minutes.
Brownies.
Cream one cup of sugar and half a cup of butter. Beat in two eggs. Add two squares of unsweetened chocolate that has been melted over hot water, half a cup of chopped nuts, and half a cup of flour. Spread over the bottom of a buttered pan and bake.
Cut in thin strips when done.

WITH USUAL RESULT LOVERS' SQUABBLE ENDED IN THE REGULAR WAY.
Simplified, She Admitted He Was Wrong, and He Accepted Her Apology, or It Was Something Like That.
"If that is the way you feel about it," she said, "we may as well consider our engagement at an end."
"I had no wish to give you pain," he replied, but there was nothing in his manner to indicate that he intended to fall upon his knees and beg her to forgive him.
"You have not given me pain," she coldly declared. "On the contrary, I am glad you are ready to have our affair terminated. I was afraid you might think me heartless when I became necessary for me to tell you that I ever cared for you."
"Why should I think you heartless for telling me that? We are all liable to make mistakes in such matters. The trouble is that too many people fail until it is too late to find out that they have been mistaken."
"I know. I'm so thankful that it has not been so in our case. I shall always have a friendly interest in your career."
"Thank you, I hope my career may not be absolutely uninteresting."
"Then you think you will have a career, just the same?"
"Oh, I shall do my best."
"I'm so glad of that. I should hate to think that I had in any way interfered with your hopes or ambitions."
"I shall be a wife, and I shall be happy." "You are sure of that. And only a silly girl would let any man deprive her of happiness."
"It is fortunate that our engagement was not announced. As it is, there will be no embarrassment for either of us."
"Will you take me home now,
please?"
"Why be in a hurry? It is early yet. We may as well enjoy this evening together."
"Are you enjoying it?"
"I always enjoy myself when I am with you."
"You don't look as if you were very happy."
"Well, I consider it no more than polite to keep from looking jubilant
you are looking particularly radiant yourself."
"Thank you so much."
"Shall I call for your wraps?"
"If you are anxious to be rid of me."
"You asked me a moment ago to take you home. I told you I was in no hurry."
"Then let us wait awhile. It is so nice to sit here listening to the music."
"I wish they'd play something a little more cheerful. That piece makes me feel as if I were at a funeral."
"Well! Why couldn't you have ac-knowledgeed before that you were in the wrong? Let's go home now. I want to be alone with you."—Chicago

CELESTIAL INSURANCE.
"Although Hughes was a confirmed cotton speculator, he was about the most careful man I ever saw," said
the old traveling man who "made"
a number of the southern states.
"One day I happened to be in his town" when they were raising money for a new Baptist church. I was surprised to hear that Hughes, who was far from devout, had contributed a large sum for the erection of the structure.
"Meeting him soon, I said: 'Say, I hear you gave a big sum to build that church. I didn't know that you were even a church member.'
"I ain't," he replied, with an air of great seriousness; 'but I'm carrying ten thousand bales of cotton I bought on margin, and this is no time for me to taking any chances!'"

GETS RIGHT TWIST
ON RHEUMATISM
Makes Short Work of Cleaning Out Your Entire System—Aches and Pains Go Fast.
Many a rheumatic sufferer has been to the drug store for a bottle of S. S. S. and been handed something claimed to be "just as good." Truly, to ask for bread and be given a stone is still in practice.
If you are troubled with rheumatism in any form be sure to use S. S. S. and note its wonderful influence.
S. S. S. has the peculiar action of soaking through the intestines, drawing out the blood. In five minutes its influence is at work in every artery, vein and tiny capillary. Every membrane, every organ of the body, every emunctory becomes infected a filter to strain the blood of impurities. The stimulating properties of S.
S. S. compel the skin, liver, bowels, kidneys, bladder to all work to the one end of casting out every irritating, every pain-producing atom of poison. It discharges all accumulations in the joints, releases acid accretions to dissolve, renders them neutral and scatters those peculiar formations in the nerve centers that cause such mystifying and often baffling rheumatic pains.

And best of all this remarkable remedy is welcome to the weakest stomach. If you have dragged yourself until your stomach is nearly paralyzed, you will be astonished to find that S. S. S. gives no sensation but goes right to work. This is because it is a pure vegetable infusion, is taken naturally into your blood just as pure air is inhaled naturally into your lungs.

Balboa has the boards.

There are no "cold feet" in Richmond.

The naval base here is working overtime in Albany.

Mayor Rolph will have a busy time crowning queens this evening.

Two hundred years ago today Balboa came through the Golden Gate and took a look around.

Many baseball fans are still arguing about that home run that Baker knocked with Collins on second.

Balboa, according to history, predicted a great future for Richmond. He knew what he was talking about.

The telephone company demands a rehearing in the San Jose rate case. Is it possible that the company is being "gouged?"

General Samuel S. Crawford, third governor of Kansas and famous as an Indian fighter, died Tuesday in Topeka aged 78.

Richmond's City hall will do business at the old stand another year. Then there will be a change to a more central location.

The White Sox will soon be here and then we can view Prince Hal, the San Jose boy who can cover first and all the contiguous territory thereto.

If the State Railroad Commission should be given the power of oversight in street building as proposed, specifications of all street work would be standardized and the cost of construction would be minimized.

Andrew Furuseth, president of the International Seamen's Union, has been appointed as one of the commissioners by the president of the United States to represent this government at the London conference on safety at sea.

Taxpayer asks: "If a fraction of an acre of land costs the city $30,000 for the tunnel right of way, how long will the remnant of the $300,000 bonds voted by the people last at that rate, and will there be any funds left to start the actual construction of the tunnel?"

Women make the best union "men" after all. A Southern California woman delegate to the state federation of labor convention recently held at Fresno suggested that each of the 500 delegates be requested to show the insignia of union labor on their wearing apparel, and thus prove their "consistency as union men." The convention did not insist on an investigation of hats, shoes, and garments in quest of the union label, but it is stated that the lady delegate caused some embarrassment among the delegates.

Council Proceedings.

The city council met Monday night, Mayor Ludwig in the chair and all members present.

The mayor was authorized by the city council to sign the lease with John Nicholls for the use of the present city hall headquarters for another year.

Street work was accepted as follows: Chanslor from 10th to S. P. right of way; 18th from Macdonald to 23d; 19th from S. P. to Bissell;

An ordinance to change grades on Clinton from 12th to 14th passed first reading.

OPEN FORUM

Socialists Are Progressive, Too.

To the Editor of The Terminal:

Socialists are upbuilders of society. Berkeley elected Wilson as mayor.

Oakland came very near the election of a mayor. Los Angeles is very strongly socialist and the wave seems to be spreading.

Socialists are trying to rid society of the "profit" system. Organized labor stands for profit. Socialism and labor are separated by widely diverging fundamentals. "No profit vs. profit."

We must have our own newspaper (no reflections on The Terminal)—and let the socialists of Oakland, Berkeley and Richmond finish what they started two years ago—that is for the Tri City Daily Journal.

The writer is in touch with a journalist at Abilene, Kansas, who will come to Richmond and edit the journal and make a success of the socialist daily.

There are enough socialists in Oakland, Berkeley and Richmond to operate a good daily, and the socialists can come into their own.

I am sick and tired of Richmond papers that have no policy, creed or following.

Yours, from a socialist's point of view.
